RULES AND STANDARDS

All attendees AGE 15 AND OVER please read and sign

"They must try and introduce the Bahá'í atmosphere of life and thought into their summer schools, rather than making the summer school an episode and a pleasant vacation period, during which they learn a little more about the Faith."

- On behalf of the Guardian, to the U.S. NSA, 5/24/54

Bahá'í Summer Schools are guided by the Guardian's vision for their mission and standards. Kentucky National Bahá'í School operates under the direct guidance and sponsorship of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of the United States. The following guidelines are offered by the Kentucky Bahá'í School Committee to facilitate the safety of the attendees of the school, to enhance the process and programs of the school, and to protect the reputation of our beloved Faith. Thank you for your cooperation.

1. Attendance at all classes is mandatory. All will attend classes at their grade level.
2. Children's behavior is the direct responsibility of the parent(s) or sponsor.
3. Curfews will be announced and enforced.
4. Modesty and courtesy in language and dress are expected at all times.
5. Of course, alcohol and firearms are prohibited.
6. No stereos, walkmans, radios, video games, etc. can be used for personal purposes.
7. No food/ meals can be brought in, by rules of the Center. Snacks are OK.
8. No solicitations or sales will be allowed without prior permission of the committee.
9. There will be no admittance to the main meeting hall during devotions.
   Please wait quietly outside until the doors are opened.

I have read the above Rules and Standards and agree to abide by them.
